Sri C. J. MUCKANNAPPA.—Will the Government consider taking over these temples under their management?

Sri M. P. PATIL.—It is under the management of the Government.

Sri C. J. MUCKANNAPPA.—Will the Government make it a point to see, at the time of amending this rule, that it directly comes within the purview of the Deputy Commissioner of the concened District ?

Sri M. P. PATIL.—That is a suggestion for action.

Underground Drainage Scheme for Bangalore City.

Q.—1536. Sri V. P. DEENADAYALU NAIDU (Cubbonpet).—

Will the Government be pleased to state :

(a) whether there is a comprehensive scheme for underground drainage for the entire City of Bangalore ;

(b) which is the authority to execute such a scheme ;

(c) whether they have approached the Central Government for subsidy or loan for such a scheme ; if so, the amount contemplated ?

A.—Sri R. CHENNIGARAMAIAH (Minister for Local Self-Government).—

(a) Yes.

(b) Corporation of the City of Bangalore.

(c) Yes. The Government of India have promised to give a loan of Rs. 40 lakhs for this purpose.

Sri V. P. DEENADAYALU NAIDU.—May I know whether this scheme includes sewage as well as disposal of plants ?

*Sri R. CHENNIGARAMAIAH.—This particular scheme includes only water supply distribution scheme and the drainage scheme.

Sri V. P. DEENADAYALU NAIDU.—My question is, whether this underground drainage scheme includes sewage leading on to the disposal of plants.

Sri R. CHENNIGARAMAIAH.—The details of the scheme are not yet available. We have asked the Corporation so submit the details of the scheme.

Sri V. P. DEENADAYALU NAIDU.—Has not the Government before them the Special Committee recommendations with regard to the comprehensive scheme for Bangalore City ?

Sri R. CHENNIGARAMAIAH.—I have not got just now the recommendations of the Committee.

Sri V. P. DEENADAYALU NAIDU.—If the Government has not got the Special Committee recommendations for a comprehensive scheme, I am prepared to wait for the answer.

Sri R. CHENNIGARAMAIAH.—That is not going to improve the matters. A comprehensive scheme is undertaken. The details of the scheme are not yet available. The Government of India in this connection have agreed to allot Rupees one crore under the Second Five-Year Plan. Out of that, it is proposed to apportion 60 per cent towards the water supply scheme and 40 per cent towards the underground drainage scheme. The details of the scheme are not submitted by the Corporation.

Sri C. J. MUCKANNAPPA.—In answer to (c) it is said that the Government of India have promised to give a loan of Rs. 40 lakhs. Have they committed themselves in writing or is it an oral promise ?

Sri R. CHENNIGARAMAIAH.—It is a commitment of the Government. Just now I said that the Central Government have agreed to give us Rupees one crore under the Second Five-Year Plan.

1-30 P.M.

Sri C. J. MUCKANNAPPA.—Supplementary to (c) : Has the Government of India committed to this amount or is it only a 'Nodona' (ನೊಡೊಣ) business ? I say this because the other day the P.W.D. Minister made a promise; when asked about this promise, he said: 'we make promises but we shall see (Nodona)'

Sri R. CHENNIGARAMAIAH.—'Nodona' business is only for Sri Muckannappa and not for the Government. (Laughter).

Sri C. J. MUCKANNAPPA.—Have Government of India committed in writing or is it only anoral promise ?

Sri R. CHENNIGARAMAIAH.—It is a commitment by the Central Government. Just now I said that they have agreed to give us one crore of rupees under the Second Five-Year Plan and 60 lakhs for water supply scheme and 40 lakhs for drainage scheme.

Sri V. P. DEENADAYALU NAIDU.—Has not the sub-committee recommended for acquisition of military land ?

Sri R. CHENNIGARAMAIAH.—All that will have to come from the Corporation.

Sri V. P. DEENADAYALU NAIDU.—I am referring to a recommendation of the sub-committee.

Sri R. CHENNIGARAMAIAH.—Unfortunately, the report is not before me just now.

Sri V. P. DEENADAYALU NAIDU.—That is exactly my point; I want therefore, to, wait for the answer.

Mr. SPEAKER.—No ; it is a matter of detail.

Sri V. P. DEENADAYALU NAIDU.—Till then, must we bear with this mosquito nuisance ?

Sri R. CHENNIGARAMAIAH.—But the idea is to eradicate that nuisance.

Mr. SPEAKER.—The question is of a very general character. Of course, if the report was before the Minister, he would have given the information.

Sri R. CHENNIGARAMAIAH.—Moreover, I do not know how the recommendation of the sub-committee is going to help my friend.

Dr. R. NAGAN GOWDA.—May I know whether Government is in a position to state as to what this comprehensive scheme consists of?

Sri R. CHENNIGARAMAIAH.—Comprehensive scheme has not been submitted to Government. It consists of sewerage, underground drainage line.

Sri V. P. DEENADAYALU NAIDU.—Sir, the Government say that they have no report before them. I have got a printed copy of the report and this is supplied by the Government. I want to wait for the correct answer until the Minister gets the copy and answers the questions.

(SRI V. P. DEENADAYALU NAIDU)

Mr. SPEAKER.—The point is, the report seems to be not before the Minister now.

Sri V. P. DEENADAYALU NAIDU.—Whatever it is, the answers given on the floor or the House must be correct.

Mr. SPEAKER.—That is right. But the Hon'ble member will also remember that though the report may be supplied by the Government, actually the Minister may not be having a copy of it.

Sri V. P. DEENADAYALU NAIDU.—Therefore I say, let me also be helpful to the Government to give information and elicit correct information.

Mr. SPEAKER.—The point is, it is not necessary to go into the report; when 40 lakhs have been sanctioned, they will take up the scheme.

Sri V. P. DEENADAYALU NAIDU.—The comprehensive scheme is such a big scheme that this 40 lakhs may not be sufficient even to meet the fringe of the problem.

Mr. SPEAKER.—When once it is strted, it cannot stop, is it not?

Sri V. P. DEENADAYALU NAIDU.—When will the Government commence implementing this scheme, Sir?

Sri R. CHENNIGARAMAIAH.—Now onwards, Sir.

Sri V. P. DEENADAYALU NAIDU.—Have they got the loan from the Government of India?

Sri R. CHENNIGARAMAIAH.—The loan is ready. The moment the scheme is ready, loan will be made available.
